UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

GUIDELINES FOR FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCES IN BENCH TRIALS BEFORE DISTRICT JUDGE LUCY H. KOH

A. Meeting and Disclosure Prior to Pretrial Conference: At least 21 days¹ before the final Pretrial Conference, lead counsel who will try the case shall meet and confer with respect to:

1. Settlement of the Case;
2. Preparation of the Joint Pretrial Statement;
3. Preparation and exchange of pretrial materials to be served and lodged pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3); and
4. Clarifying and narrowing the contested issues for trial in order to achieve a just, speedy, and efficient determination of the case.

B. Joint Pretrial Statement and Order: At least 14 days before the final Pretrial Conference, unless otherwise ordered, the parties shall lodge and serve a Joint Pretrial Statement and Proposed Order containing the following information:

1. Substance of the Action. A brief description of the parties, the substance of claims and defenses that remain to be decided, and the operative pleadings that raise the issues;

¹ Time shall be computed according to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(a).

2. Relief Sought. A detailed statement of all relief claimed, particularly itemizing all elements of damages claimed as well as witnesses, documents, or other evidentiary material to be presented concerning the amount of damages;
3. Undisputed Facts. A plain and concise statement of all relevant facts to which the parties will stipulate for incorporation into the trial record without the necessity of supporting testimony or exhibits;
4. Disputed Factual Issues. A plain and concise list of the issues of fact that are contested and remain to be litigated at trial;
5. Agreed Statement. A statement assessing whether all or part of the action may be presented upon an agreed statement of facts;
6. Stipulations. A statement of proposed stipulations or agreements that will expedite the presentation of evidence;
7. Witnesses to be Called. A list of witnesses likely to be called at trial, other than solely for impeachment or rebuttal, together with a brief statement following each name describing the substance of the testimony to be given. No party shall be permitted to call any witness in its case in chief who is not disclosed in its Joint Pretrial Statement without leave of the Court for good cause;
8. Exhibits, Schedules, Summaries. A list of all documents and other items to be offered as exhibits at the trial with a brief statement following each, describing its substance or purpose and the identity of the sponsoring witness;
9. Disputed Legal Issues. Without extended legal argument, a concise statement of each disputed point of law concerning liability or relief, citing supporting statutes and decisions;
10. Further Discovery or Motions. A statement of all remaining discovery, if any, or any motions or matters that must be resolved prior to trial, including motions in limine;

1 11. Disputed Evidentiary Issues. A concise statement of each disputed evidentiary issue
2 (even if a motion in limine will not be filed on that issue), citing supporting statutes
3 and decisions or referring to the appropriate motion in limine;

4 12. Bifurcation, Separate Trial of Issues. A statement of whether bifurcation or a
5 separate trial of specific issues is feasible and desired;

6 13. Estimate of Trial Time. An estimate of the total number of hours or days needed for 7 the trial; and

8 14. Miscellaneous. Any other matters that will facilitate the just, speedy and efficient
9 determination of the action.

10 C. Binding Effect of the Joint Pretrial Statement and Order: The Joint Pretrial
11 Statement and Order described above shall recite, directly above the signature lines of 12 each party, the following:

13 The foregoing admissions having been made by the parties, and the parties having 14 specified the foregoing issues of fact and law remaining to be litigated, this order shall
15 supplement the pleadings and govern the course of trial of this action, unless modified
16 to prevent manifest injustice.

17 D. Preparation for Trial

18 1. Exhibits:

19 a) At least 14 days before the final Pretrial Conference, the parties shall exchange
20 copies of all exhibits, summaries, charts, and diagrams to be used at trial other
21 than solely impeachment or rebuttal.

22 b) Each exhibit shall be pre-marked for identification. Counsel shall meet and 23 confer and reach agreement upon a method for marking exhibits (for example,
24 Plaintiff shall use numbers and Defendant shall use letters, or Plaintiff shall use
25 numbers 100-199 and Defendant shall use numbers 200-299, etc.).

26 c) Unless otherwise ordered, at least 7 days prior to the commencement of trial, the 27 parties shall deliver three sets of all pre-marked exhibits contained in three ring
28 binders to the Irene Mason, Courtroom Deputy to Judge Koh.

1 d) No party shall be permitted to offer any exhibit at trial that is not disclosed in its
2 Joint Pretrial Statement without leave of the Court for good cause.

3 2. Motions in Limine: Unless otherwise ordered, the parties shall file and serve any 4 motions in limine at least 14 days before the final Pretrial Conference, and any
5 opposition thereto at least 10 days before the final Pretrial Conference. Ordinarily,
6 these motions will be deemed submitted without oral argument. Each motion
7 should be presented in a separate memo and numbered as, for example, “Plaintiff’s
8 Motion in Limine No. 1 to Exclude” Please limit motions in limine to 9 circumstances that actually require a ruling in advance of trial. Usually three or 10 fewer motions per side are sufficient at the Pretrial Conference stage (without 11 prejudice to raising matters as the trial progresses). Each motion should address a 12 single topic, be separate, and contain no more than three pages of briefing per side.
13 The Court may modify the limits on the number of motions and pages on a case by 14 case basis.

15 3. Deposition and Discovery Designations: Unless otherwise ordered, at least 14 days
16 before the commencement of trial, the parties shall file and serve any excerpts of 17 deposition testimony or other discovery to be offered at trial, other than solely for 18 impeachment or rebuttal. (A hard copy of the designated deposition testimony with 19 page and line references, or the interrogatory response or admission shall be 20 provided.) Any objections to the use of designated excerpts and any counter-
21 designations of deposition testimony shall be filed and served at least 10 days prior
22 to the commencement of trial.

23 4. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. At least 7 days prior to the 24 Pretrial Conference, each party shall file and serve proposed findings of fact and 25 conclusions of law. The findings of fact shall set forth in simple declarative
26 sentences, separately numbered, all factual contentions relied upon by the party in 27 support of its claims or defenses and shall be free of pejorative language and 28 argument. Conclusions of law shall be supported by appropriate citation to legal

1 authority. The proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law shall be submitted
2 in hard copy as well as in word processing format via e-mail to
3 LHKpo@cand.uscourts.gov.

- 4 5. Trial Briefs: Trial briefs are optional, but any party wishing to file a trial brief must 5 do so not less than 7 days prior to the commencement of trial.
- 6 6. Time Limits: Ordinarily, the Court shall set fixed time limits at the final Pretrial
7 Conference. All of your examination time (whether direct, cross, re-direct, or re-
8 cross) for all witnesses must fit within your time limit and you may allocate the time
9 as you wish. Opening and closing time limits are in addition to a party's 10 examination time.

11 E. Scheduling

12 The normal trial schedule will be 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., with a lunch break from 12:00
13 p.m. to 1:00 p.m., on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Fridays.

14 F. Settlement and Continuances

15 Shortly before trial or a final Pretrial Conference, counsel occasionally wish to jointly
16 advise the Court that a settlement has been reached and seek to take the matter off
17 calendar based on a settlement "in principle" with disputes remaining. Cases, however,
18 cannot be taken off calendar in this manner. Unless and until a stipulated dismissal is 19 filed or placed on the record, all parties must be prepared to proceed as scheduled.

20 G. Opportunities for Junior Lawyers

21 The Court strongly encourages parties to permit less experienced lawyers to examine 22 witnesses at trial and to have an important role at trial. Counsel should be prepared to 23 discuss such opportunities at the Pretrial Conference.

24 IT IS SO ORDERED.
